

The pregnant and neonatal microbiome - relevant for health later in life 25th of May 2016

Location: Arvid Carlsson, Academicum, Medicinaregatan 3

Chairs: Bo Jacobsson, Gothenburg, Sweden and Joseph K Hwang, Seattle, USA

- 08.30 - 09.00 "Probiotics during pregnancy and outcome"
Bo Jacobsson, Gothenburg, Sweden
- 09.00 - 09.30 "The development of vaginal microbiota in the last trimester of pregnancy"
Martin Steen Mortensen, Copenhagen, Denmark
- 09.30 - 10.45 "The pregnancy and neonatal microbiome"
Kjersti Aagaard, Houston, USA
- 10.45 - 11.15 Break
- Chairs: Anna Rudin and Jovanna Dahlgren, both Gothenburg, Sweden
- 11.15 - 12.00 "Spatial variation in microbiota within the human placenta"
Indira Mysorekar, Saint Louis, USA
- 12.00 - 12.45 "Delayed B cell maturation infants - a risk factor for allergy development in children"
Anna-Carin Lundell, Gothenburg, Sweden
- 12.45 - 13.15 "Is childhood obesity programmed by microbiota during infancy?"
Jovanna Dahlgren, Gothenburg, Sweden

Pre-registration needed for this meeting!

Welcome!

Bo Jacobsson, Professor in Obstetrics and Gynecology, Sahlgrenska Academy

